Please allow 21days for memberships to be processed. All data is held securely by EADA and will be treated confidentially and with sensitivity for the benefit of EADA and its members. Selected data is available to Dancesport England, and other affiliated dance organisations for specific projects. Data is used for a range of EADA's activities including sending publications, the promotion of services to members, the notification of events and the raising of funds for EADA all of which might include an element of direct marketing. Under the terms of the 1998 Data Protection Act you have the right to object to the use of your data for any of these purposes and can request that your details are not passed on to any other organisations. You are able to specify on the registration form above if you are willing for your contact details to be given to those individuals and organisations looking for demonstration couples.
