Notes:

- You are requested to ensure that all forms submitted with this application are completed accurately and in full and that all information requested, such as proof of age where age limitations are applied, accompanies the application. This will ensure that enrolment of your team members will not be delayed by EADA having to request missing information.
- You may add more photocopies of membership forms to this top sheet as required.
- Should you also require your members listed in a particular order, please number them in order of preference at the top right corner

Please note that the current British Dance Council rule 49 states that all Formation Team names are to be registered with them. We advise making contact with them for team name purposes and any fees that they may charge.

Please submit each Team application separately

A stamped addressed envelope of minimum size C5 (230x162mm) must accompany your application. If documents enclosed for membership purposes are to be returned, please ensure that they are clearly indicated. If such documents are to be returned to an individual team member, please ensure that a suitable stamped, addressed envelope for return is enclosed to comply with your request.
