On Show 2010

On Show appears only once every five years. Bringing together more than 900 performers from 27 different dance styles, On Show 2010 will be a magical journey, truly bringing dance together in one place, for one afternoon only.

From the Indian Dance Group to Swamp Circus, from Latin American to the British Cheerleading Association, the show will demonstrate the strength and diversity of movement and dance in the UK in a way which few others can.

History shows dance portraying human emotions throughout the ages and today it is recognised as being one of the most valuable recreative activities within communities, bringing physical, mental and social benefits to participants.

As part of the 75th anniversary celebrations of CCPR, the alliance of the governing and representative bodies of sport and recreation, its movement and dance members will showcase their enormous talents at the Royal Albert Hall.
